embossing

In addition to your choice of paper or plain lid styles on our flat and deep containers, Buckeye offers custom embossing for a truly exceptional finish. An embossed lid offers a unique way to enhance a brand, logo, or positioning.

Embossing not only adds a distinctive look to the lid, but also reduces your cost over time, by eliminating the need for applying labels. Just ask your Buckeye Customer Service Representative when you place your order.

lids for glass jars

Searching for a unique lid? Let Buckeye Shapeform's design team work for you to design a lid that will fit your specific needs.

special sizes

Let Buckeye create a container to meet your specific needs.

Whether it be a unique size, material, color, or product feature, give us a call to explore ideas that will make your product stand out.

value-added services

Our philosophy at Buckeye is to offer our customers the broadest range of services that will help them complete their products for sale. We'll work with you to make your business easier, with services like:

- Layer-packing, which serves as convenient repack cartons to your customers and provides optimal protections during transit.
- Assembly
- Custom packaging for optimal handling
- Pad printing

how can we help you?
